

PRESS RELEASE

National recognition has been achieved for the second consecutive year by the South East's leading independent timber and heavyside builders' merchant, Parker Building Supplies.

At a prestigious event held in London's Savoy Hotel the company again scooped the Builders' Merchants Award for Excellence for its Hard Landscaping Centres and Displays. On a momentous day the company were also runners up in the Best Marketing category.

The 2006 success follows on from the achievements of winning both the Hard Landscaping and Training Awards and also runners up for Marketing in 2005.

The Awards are open to all Timber and Builders Merchants in the UK, both independent and national, which makes the achievements all the more remarkable.

Currently employing 100 staff across 7 locations in Sussex and Kent the company will be opening a new Joinery Showroom in Hailsham on January 2nd as well as a new 2 acre Heavyside branch in Haywards Heath on March 1st 2007.
